· 	Appr		7	DP80-00810A0 032003	30001-9
, / , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	m1 °	CLASSIFICATION.	ระดร์เลขึ้น
COUNTRY_	East Germ	any	-	REPORT
TOPIC	Military		om the Templin Tr	coop Training Groun	ad s 25X1
·	age and materialists. Company	,		- 30 · · · · · · · · ·
EVALUATION	_	# # 1	PLACE OBTAINED	, ,	25X1
1 DATE OF CO			DIOL ODIMINED		2.1
DATE OBTAIN			DATE OD	DADED 1 Decembe	r 1953
REFERENCES			DATE PRE	PARED	1 17JJ
	3
PAGES	EN	CLOSURES (NO. 4	k TYPE)
REMARKS	-				m nightigh still man styrig tritty stillytisk i night night "night his siy him styllyt (1 tilligh hinds). Tillight on nyyba
	·
(1					e official films and according to the right of the second develope of the second contains a different second conta
	•			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
(1	At about 1 and baggag on 18 Octo	do p.m. on 26 00 and about the wore entrained ber, 16 trucks	t 300 to 400 troo ed at the Templin were seen an roo	picked up the printed number of very ps carrying infant a railroad station.	rehicles cry weapons At about 9 p.m.
(1	the direct	ion of Eberswal	lde.		2
(1	the camp.	,,,,,,		a new un	it arrived at
_		J 1
(1
2.	MOOT THE MT	nver uniliorms a	nd Without arms	oxcars occupied by arrived at Templin	france the mid-about 400 a	ammunition boxe rough the Templ	entrained in Ze. S Were loaded at in railroad state	the Templin railro	oops with infantry ang. Cn 4 November, and station. Shipment toward Voge	elsang at 2 p.n coming from the	on 3 November of the direction of the	direction of Ebera and 22 trucks and 3	swalde and proceeding 30 boxcars occupied
1 .	3 T-34/85 t	NO DOWN OUT AT INC.	s. 5 trucks and a	10 a.m. and 6:30 p. about 20 troops we	M AM / Tanana la ana
	toward Fuer	TATTLORG STREET	ion, doming from	the direction of A . on 5 November, J	ops passed through serlin and proceeding
(1 .		- 3-7/ 07 water 18 ;		2	ambulances
•	•	ACCIFICATION	**************************************

Between 6 and 3 November, no troop trains were loaded and unloaded at, or passed through, the Templin railroad station. 4. Camp Kannenburg was occupied only by a guard detail of about 9 soldiers equipped with 2 motorcycles and 1 dog after 26 October. Prior to 28 October, all was quiet at the Kannenburg firing range. Individual trucks engaged in driving practice. On 27 October, a Soviet major and a senior lieutenant stated at the Altplacht forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Movamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/55 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coming from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several Ai machine guns which had come from the direction of forest-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank but a seen in Jagen No 131. The dumy tank was connec With the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dumny tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been vithdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks leaves and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg Firing rang the new barracks installation northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter bailings for EN and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construction at tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction mion) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning		Sæcret 25X1
a field kitchen, trucks timber, about 60 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and about 200 boxes were entrained at the Templin railroad station, and left toward Barlin.¹ Between 6 and 3 lovember, no troop trains were loaded and unloaded at, or passed through, the Templin railroad station. 4. Camp Kannenburg was occupied only by a guard detail of about 9 soldiers equipped with 2 motorcycles and 1 dog after 26 October. Prior to 28 October, all was quiet at the Kannenburg firing range. Individual trucks engaged in driving practice. On 27 October, a Soviet major and a senior lieutement stated at the Altplacht forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Novamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/35 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coning from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Grosse Bee fired at alseve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank but the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dumny tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. In 2 November and activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been excluded or no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been excluded prior to early November. All buildings here permanent structures. The schuled contraction on paths and 6 motor varieties and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November, all buildings were permanent structures. The schuled contraction equals were permanent structures. The schuled contraction and officer by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulers. Five trucks buildings for EM and 6 motor varieties and tank sheds had been occupied pri		- 2 -
a field kitchen, trucks timber, about 60 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and about 200 boxes were entrained at the Templin railroad station, and left toward Barlin.¹ Between 6 and 3 lovember, no troop trains were loaded and unloaded at, or passed through, the Templin railroad station. 4. Camp Kannenburg was occupied only by a guard detail of about 9 soldiers equipped with 2 motorcycles and 1 dog after 26 October. Prior to 28 October, all was quiet at the Kannenburg firing range. Individual trucks engaged in driving practice. On 27 October, a Soviet major and a senior lieutement stated at the Altplacht forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Novamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/35 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coning from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Grosse Bee fired at alseve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank but the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dumny tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. In 2 November and activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been excluded or no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been excluded prior to early November. All buildings here permanent structures. The schuled contraction on paths and 6 motor varieties and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November, all buildings were permanent structures. The schuled contraction equals were permanent structures. The schuled contraction and officer by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulers. Five trucks buildings for EM and 6 motor varieties and tank sheds had been occupied pri boxes were entrained at the Templin railroad station, and left toward Berlin.¹ Between 6 and 3 November, no troop trains were loaded and unloaded at, or passed through, the Templin railroad station. 4. Camp Kammenburg was occupied only by a guard detail of about 9 soldiers equipped with 2 motoreycles and 1 dog after 26 October. Prior to 28 October, all was quiet at the Kannenburg firing range. Individual trucks engaged in driving practice. On 27 October, a Soviet major and a senior lieutenant stated at the Altplacht forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Movember, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 7-3//25 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coming from the direction of Hammelapring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-3//35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 191. The dummy tenk was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. In 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sourcies had been victoriann. On 3 November, empty trucks large and the source of the seem	• [a field kitchen, trucks carrying on 27 October, a Soviet major and a senior lieutenant stated at the Altplacht forestry that, between 29 October and 3 November, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the training area. On 29 October, 32 T-32/25 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coming from the direction of Hammelapring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/25 tank [bowing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, are activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks placed black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rangering and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rangement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered orinson epaulets were observed to the numberous troops wearing black-bordered orinson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. In addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-xm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motoroycles.		boxes were entrained at the Templin railroad station, and left toward Berlin. Between 6 and 3 November, no troop trains were loaded and unloaded at, or
On 27 October, a Soviet major and a senior lieutement stated at the Altplacht forestry that, between 29 October am 3 Movember, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the training area. On 29 October, 32 T-3/4/55 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coming from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which had one from the direction of Gross-See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-3/4/55 tank towing a durmay tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The durmay tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the durmy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks Jere seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-xm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 5A machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles.] 4.	equipped with 2 motorcycles and 1 dog after 26 October. Prior to 28 October, forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Novamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/25 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coning from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks read to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. Here seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang thank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 6 the dates mentioned lates are nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles.
forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Novamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/25 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coning from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks read to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. Here seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang thank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 6 the dates mentioned lates are nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles.
forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Novamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/25 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coning from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks read to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. Here seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang thank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 6 the dates mentioned lates are nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles.
forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Novamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/25 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coning from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks read to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. Here seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang thank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 6 the dates mentioned lates are nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles.	4
forestry that, between 29 October and 3 Novamber, a tank unit was to conduct a exercise and that, therefore, wood workers were prohibited to enter the traini area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/25 tanks, were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coning from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks read to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. Here seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang thank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting 6 the dates mentioned lates are nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles.		On 27 October, a Soviet major and a senior lieutement stated at the Altplacht
were seen en route to the fire observation tower in Jagen (forest section) coming from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks read area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang the new barracks installation northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled constru- of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringsa did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black- bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in parager probably involved tanks of the 82d Cds itv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div		forestry that, between 29 October and 3 November, a tank unit was to conduct an coming from the direction of Hammelspring. The tanks subsequently engaged in a tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks raming red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Granienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang insignia, proceeded toward Granienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing range tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Eaugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. In addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned Aiffer by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraprobably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.		area. On 29 October, 32 T-34/85 tanks, tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31 October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Be See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connec with the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attacked to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks here seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang the northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered orimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragre probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.
See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-34/35 tank towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connect With the tank by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks		tank firing practice, during which the area was heavily guarded. On 30 and 31
the tenk by an iron rod, about 4 meters long. About 100 infantry soldiers equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. In 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks were seen in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing range buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-2m AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as a sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment montioned in paragrap probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Meez Div.		October, several AA machine guns which had come from the direction of Gross-Beu See fired at sleeve targets towed by 2 biplanes. On 2 November, T-3//85 tank equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank, with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. In 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks		towing a dummy tank was seen in Jagen No 131. The dummy tank was connect with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. In 2 November, no activity was observed at the training area; the sentries had been withdrawn. On 3 November, empty trucks		equipped with live magnetic antitank hollow charges, attacked the dummy tank.
in Hammelspring. On the same day, truck loaded with boxes and ir frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang the northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-rm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles.		with the charges always attached to the front armor plates. On 2 November, no frames and driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang the new barracks installation northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphobably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.
insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing rang the new barracks installation northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-rm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphobably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.
northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphosably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div		insignia, proceeded toward Oranienburg, coming from the Kannenburg firing range northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphosably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div	  northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphosably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div
northwest of Vogelsang were located in Jagen Nos 253 through 256. Seven quarter buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphosably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div	Ļ	T., , , , , buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to early November. All buildings were permanent structures. The scheduled construct of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphosably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-mm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraphosably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div		buildings for EM and 6 motor vehicle and tank sheds had been occupied prior to Baugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement regarding the costs. Beginning in late October, numberous troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-rm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraph probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div		of a tank road had not yet started as the Soviet construction staff and the bordered crimson epaulets were observed in the quartering area. in addition to troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-rm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraph probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div		Eaugemeinschaft (construction union) Thuringia did not come to an agreement troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks, towing 5 x 57-rm AT guns, were at the garages and 9 trucks mounting AA machine guns were seen nearby, as well as 8 sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraph probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div		bordered crimson enaulets were observed in the quartering area, in addition to
8 sidecar motorcycles. 1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraph probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.		troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Five trucks,
1. Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by about 24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment mentioned in paragraph probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.
24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment montioned in paragraprobably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.
24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment montioned in paragraprobably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.
24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment montioned in paragraprobably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.	L
24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment montioned in paragraprobably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div.	1. [Comment. Although the dates mentioned differ by shout probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div		24 hours, the two shipments may be identical. The shipment montioned in paragrap
WOTEN Transferred to Reviin.		probably involved tanks of the 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 6th Gds Mecz Div, which transferred to Berlin.

SECRET,

25X1

25X1

2. Comment. the tank firing practice probably involved tanks of the 111th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div, which is believed to be permanently stationed in Camp Vogelsang. The AA machine guns can be also carried with this regiment.

25X1

4. Comment. The new barracks installations in Jagen Nos 253 through 256 in the area of Camp Vogelsang have been occupied since mid-October by units of the 25th Tank Div, definitely including the 111th Tank Regt, to which the

AT guns and the AA machine guns are also believed to belong.

- 3 -

SECRET,

SECRET,